Cold noodles have a long history that dates back to the Tang Dynasty A.D. 609–907. It is believed that the first empress of China Wu Zetain was the one who invented cold noodles. Before she was chosen to serve the royal court, she often ate noodles. On one eventful day, she burned her tongue while eating hot noodles. To avoid future burns, she decided to create a cold noodle dish with local chefs. A little over a millennium has passed and this noodle is still popular today!

Dough Zone specializes in authentic regional Chinese noodles. Determined to bring a quality dining experience, Dough Zone only utilizes the freshest noodles and high-quality ingredients.
