DOUGH ZONE

DOUGH ZONE'S NEW KIRKLAND LOCATION IS NOW OPEN!

Kirkland, WA Release: NOV 2021. For Immediate Release

The wait is finally over because one of the most well-known Asian restaurants in Seattle -Dough Zone Dumpling House- has opened on Nov 22, 2021. After a yearlong wait and hundreds of inquiries regarding the opening, Dough Zone's new restaurant will be located in the Kirkland Urban community which is a vibrant shop, dine, live, work and play destination located in the center of downtown Kirkland.

We specialize in authentic Chinese buns such as Q-Bao (Pan Fried Buns), Xiao Long Bao (Soup Dumplings), and a variety of distinct, regional Chinese noodles. Determined to bring a quality dining experience, Dough Zone only utilizes the freshest ingredients. We pride ourselves on our friendly service and affordable pricing.

"It's really exciting to see Dough Zone opening its 10th restaurant", said Cindy Guan Vice president of Dough Zone. "Dough Zone started off as a mom-and-pop shop back in 2014 but due to the high demand of our dishes we were fortunate enough to expand so rapidly".

Our Dishes

Dough Zone offers an extensive yet affordable dining experience with a selection of expertly crafted dumplings, freshly made noodles, high-quality meats, local vegetables, and more.

Appetizers and Vegetables – Dough Zone features a wide variety of appetizers and vegetable dishes that pair perfectly well with noodles and dumplings. The sweet & sour cucumber is a beautifully arranged salad coated with a house-made sweet and sour dressing. The kale salad with 2 dressing options is made with quickly blanched kale that brightens its color and at the same time retains its natural vitamins and minerals.

Xiao Long Bao – Dough Zone’s soup dumplings come in 3 traditional flavors and feature premium ingredients – Berkshire-Duroc pork, “no antibiotics ever” chicken & Berkshire-Duroc pork with crab meat. Our chefs proudly use a secret traditional recipe in order to create the savory soupy filling inside these signature xiao long bao. By adding aspic to seasoned moist meat filling and steaming, the jelly will liquefy into a broth and fill the traditional steamed bun with juiciness and savory goodness. These were traditionally steamed inside a little bamboo basket, thus the name Xiao (small) Long (basket) Bao (bun) was born.

Q Bao - One of our signature dishes Q-Bao is originally from the famous Shanghai Sheng Jian Bao (Pan Fried Buns). Our tasty Q-Bao 's is made and prepared with distinctively fresh ingredients in a traditional way of cooking. It is filled with moist Berkshire-Duroc pork, secret recipe aspic, and wrapped with dough. After being half steamed and half pan-fried, buns turn out perfectly soft on the top, crispy and crunchy on the bottom.

Noodles– Szechuan’s specialty “Dan Dan Noodle” is one of the signature noodles at Dough Zone. A top-secret spicy sauce is added to the Dan Dan Noodle to bring spicy, and numbing flavors that make these noodles stand out from the rest. A Taiwanese classic “Beef noodle soup” is a customer favorite that is made with braised beef brisket and traditional ingredients (egg, tofu, green onion & cilantro). There are also Gluten-free and vegetarian options available which include the hot & sour clear noodle which is a noodle made from potato starch.

Desserts – Our one-of-a-kind dessert banana naan bread with whipped cream is a sweet recreation of traditional naan bread. The mango pancake, a beloved Hong Kong favorite combines mangos and whipped cream wrapped in a delicate crepe and topped with a dusting of powdered sugar.

Brand History

Dough Zone Dumpling House was established in Seattle in 2014. The motivation behind the creation of Dough Zone was a desire to bring traditional homemade Chinese comfort food into a modern setting. Dough Zone opened its first store in Bellevue, WA and since then, Dough Zone has expanded into a chain with eight stores throughout the greater Seattle area as well as two Northern California branches in San Mateo, and Cupertino. We specialize in authentic Chinese buns like Q-Bao (Pan Fried Buns), Xiao Long Bao (Soup Dumplings), and a variety of distinct, regional Chinese noodles.
